

DRAFT AGENDA

Inaugural Leadership Program Meeting September 29-30, 2008

Monday September 29, 2008

Day 1 of 2

Exploring Leadership Theories and Practices and Meet the Leaders

The purpose of this workshop is for ETCD and CCTSI executives to articulate their personal philosophies about, and applications of, leadership. Participants will critique the conclusions of a large body of scholarly work on leadership through simple but challenging exercises.

- |                 |   |
|-----------------|---|
| 8:00 a.m.       | Coffee/Tea and Set-up & Registration  |
| 8:30-9:30 a.m.  | Program openingIntroductory Remarks— Dr. Anne LibbyParticipant introductions: Como Cimiento |
| 9:30-12:00 p.m. | Exploring Leadership Concepts— Effley Brooks, MBA  |
| 12:00-1:00 p.m. | Lunch (on terrace, weather permitting)  |
| 1:00-2:30 p.m.  | Meet the Leaders—vetted Q&amp;AHonored guest: State of Colorado First Lady Jeanne Ritter        |
| 2:30-4:00 p.m.  | 5 Practices of Exemplary Leadership—self assessment   |

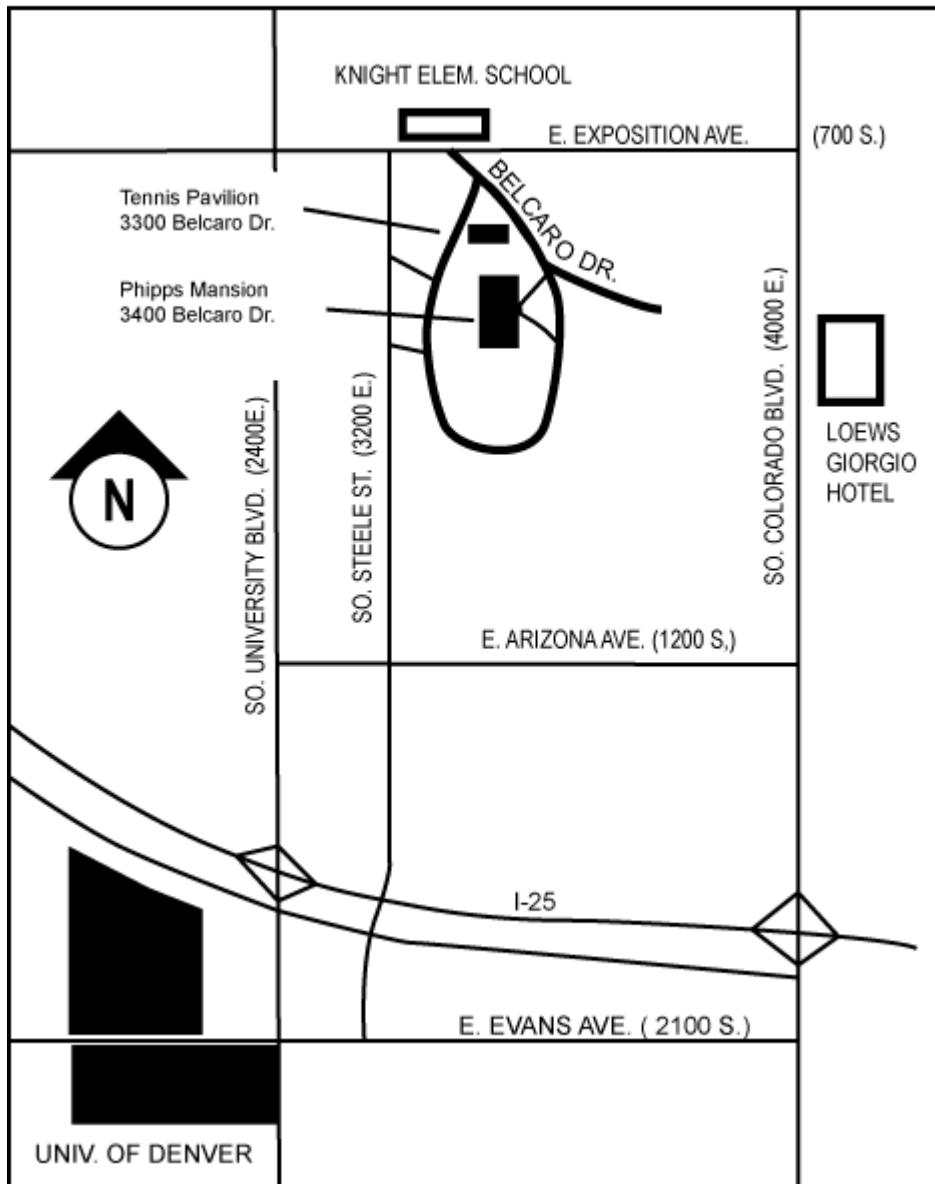

Tuesday September 29, 2008

Day 2 of 2

Emotional Intelligence and Connections to Leadership

The purpose of this workshop is for ETCD and CCTSI executives to acquire a robust understanding of emotional intelligence, specifically the ability model comprising four distinct abilities (see article on EI in this month's issue of JAMA). Participants will engage in activities designed to underscore the significance of emotional intelligence in leadership and management.

8:00 a.m.	Coffee/Tea and Set-up
8:30-9:30 p.m.	Conceptual Framework for Persistence in Academic Research Careers— Dr. Spero Manson
9:30-12:00	Emotional Intelligence Session 1— Effley Brooks The Four Abilities
12:00-1:00p.m.	Lunch (on terrace, weather permitting)
1:00-4:00 p.m.	Emotional Intelligence and Leadership—Session 2 Applications of the EI Model

Meeting Location and Logistics

Phipps Mansion
3400 Belcaro Drive
Denver, Colorado
80209

The Phipps Estate is located between University and Colorado Boulevards just south of Exposition Avenue.

Parking is free.

Coffee/tea/juice service will be available all day.

Lunch is provided to Leadership Program participants and invited guests.